

Come create winged hearts in community for Women Veterans Day presented by Life On Earth Art and Military Women Across The Nation, Unit 77

June 11	10a.m.-1 p.m.	at Life on Earth Art Downtown Petaluma [133 COPELAND ST]
---------	---------------	--

We invite you to a fun, creative gathering of women veterans where we will paint paper mâché winged hearts as part of a collective artwork by Female Veterans for the first Veterans Art Day in Sonoma County, Sept 23, 2023. Finger food & beverages will be provided. There is a $5 fee to hold a seat. Scholarships available for those who cannot afford the fee (call Annika at 415-827-1827).

Military Women Across the Nation (MWAN) is a nonprofit incorporating Active Duty and Veteran Women who have served or are serving HONORABLY in ALL MILITARY branches.

Life on Earth Art is a new arts non-profit organization based in Petaluma. Through artmaking and community building, Life on Earth Art focuses on deep personal and societal integration through the healing of trauma. We create large-scale art installations to foster hope, connection, and compassion. Life on Earth Art's model is deeply collaborative, building webs of connection between the healing professions, artists, healthcare and social services with an emphasis on empowering and serving under resourced groups.
